

THE LAST WEEK

GRANDPARENTS' DAY

1W really enjoyed doing the special assembly for Grandparents' Day and everyone seemed to like it. Some of our grans and grandads came to Mathematics and helped us with making amounts of money. Some more came for English and helped us to answer questions about Barnaby's Bank Holiday. We all had a smashing day and hope they did. 1W

We were visited by about twelve grandparents altogether. Our first lesson with them was in the ICT suite. We were able to show them our photographs from the year and explain how the VLE works. Our second lesson was Geography where we looked for Viking places in our Atlases. We also found out that our grandparents were very good at their tables and we taught them our new method for subtraction. 3S

Kingswood College trust opened its doors to many who have not been to school for a long time. Grandparents came to the Year 1's assembly and the junior choir sang 'Thank you for the music' and 'Waterloo'. During the assembly Mr Borowski reminded them all about the big stick that was used to keep discipline. They then went on a tour of the school. In the classes the grandparents saw the children painting and working on a Greece project. After lessons they set off for their lunch in the Great Hall where they tucked into fish, chips and mushy peas. The lovely lunch was followed by further visits to the classrooms. The day ended with some very happy but tired grandparents watching the pupils play rounders as they drove home down the long drive. All agreed that the day was a great success. Sam Forrest 5B

Every year there is a day when lots of grandparents come to school and learn one or two things about what we have been doing in lessons. They were treated to fish, chips and mushy peas with apple pie for dessert. After they had some extracts from Grease. My nan's would like to thank everyone for taking part and making a fantastic effort and they will definitely come next year if it is on. Amy Bell 5B

GRANDPARENTS' DAY

On Wednesday 6th May it was Grandparents' Day at Kingswood College, and what a day it turned out to be! They kick started the day with a magnificent assembly by Year 1, and in the same assembly took a trip down memory lane singing two songs from 'Abba', which were 'Waterloo' and 'Thank you for the Music'. After that they could either go back to class with their grandchildren or have a cup of tea or coffee in the Blue Drawing Room. In 5B the grandparents were joining in the History lesson and part of the French lesson. For lunch they had fish, chips and mushy peas. After lunch they got to watch the school's latest performance of 'Grease' and I'm sure they were all incredibly pleased by the performance and I hope that seeing the performance and having such a good day will make them want to come back again next year. Ross Turpin 5B

My grandma and grandad came to Grandparents' Day and said they had a very enjoyable day. Year 1 assembly was really good, they enjoyed singing the 'Abba' songs. It brought back memories of their younger days. It was very interesting for them to go back to lessons, although they were a little different than when they were at school. The lunch was really good, as were scones and coffee in the morning. They think our school is very friendly, all the children are very well mannered and pleasant. They thought the waiters and waitress did an excellent job, the piano and singing were the icing on the cake, they said it was really lovely. They would like to thank Mr Borowski and all members of staff for making their day so enjoyable. Kiera Lucas 5B
